

Transferring Service

If you move from one service location to another within our service area, your deposit cannot be transferred to the new location. A new application for service will be required and a service charge will be assessed. Non-residential customer deposits are refunded when the account is closed. The new customer moving in at your old service location shall make a deposit. Deposits cannot be transferred from one customer to another.